

Council President Installs New Perry P-TA Officers

Mrs. W. A. Wright, Torrance Council P-TA president, was installing officer as the new officers of Perry P-TA officially assumed their posts during the last regular association meeting of the unit on May 19.

Installed as president for the coming year was Mrs. Roy Dohner, and assisting her on the board will be Mmes. T. R. Jackson, vice-president; R. E. Nelson, secretary; Mr. Charles Weaver, treasurer; and Mmes. Francis Fox and E. Carlstrom, auditor and historian respectively. Assisting Mrs. Wright with the installation was her sister, Mrs. Sarah Hooker, and highlighting the ceremony was the reading of the historian report in rhyme by Mrs. T. R. Jackson.

Puppet Show Given

Also on the program was a puppet show given by students of Mrs. Betty O'Brien's third

PICNIC HELD

Fried chicken and potluck delicacies were on the menu last Sunday when the Torrance Junior Woman's Club held a family picnic in Torrance Park.

Approximately sixty joined in the fun, as sack races and other games for the children furnished the afternoon's entertainment, arranged by Mrs. J. K. Leopold, games chairman. Chairman of the affair was Mrs. Phillip Hoffman, assisted by Mmes. George Winters, D. J. Paul, John Agapito, and Jerry Wood.

grade, who designed and made the puppets out of socks.

Presentation of the flag was made in unison by Girl Scout troop 857, Boy Scout troop 953, Brownie troop 1680, and cub scout troop 953C, all sponsored by Perry P-TA.

The scouts also displayed their handiwork among the showing of hobbies and handiwork of parents and students. Teachers' Luncheon Set Mrs. C. L. Thompson supervised the serving of refreshments, and it was announced that the teachers' luncheon hosted by the board, would be held on June 14 in the teachers' room.

Court of Awards Held by Scouts at Crenshaw School

Fifty-five Proficiency Badges were given recently at the Court of Awards held by Girl Scout Troop 1368 at the Crenshaw school cafeteria. The group is sponsored by the P-TA at Crenshaw.

Mrs. James Nix, a former Girl Scout leader and W. E. Walton, a Boy Scout commissioner, were among those presenting the awards.

A Thanks Badge was given to Mrs. Earl Brest, troop leader, by Mrs. Leon Lewis, president of the troop's Mother's Club. Mrs. Brest was public relations chairman for the Harbor Area for 2 years, North Torrance Association co-chairman, and is now junior high planning board advisor.

Invited guests were Mrs. Walton, Harbor chairman of Girl Scouts; Mrs. Robert Chavez, North Torrance Association chairman; Mrs. Ralph Eystone, P-TA president and her board, Earl Eckert, principal of the school, and families and friends of the troop.

Receiving badges were Beth Allen, Violet Finley, Donna Golden, Carol Hamilton, Susan Hayes, Judy Holly, Nancy Holly, Alvenia Jones, Jeanne Ledbetter, Joyce Lewis, Linda Malo-

Local Club Wins Prizes In Lawndale Flower Show

The Torrance Terrace Garden Club won first prize for its shadow box entry in the Lawndale flower show held last weekend, May 21 and 22, in the Lawndale library. The event, staged by the Lawndale Garden Club, was sponsored by the Los Angeles Department of Parks and Recreation.

Also winning many prizes were individual members of the Torrance Terrace Club as Mrs. Victor Benstead, club president, won first prize for table arrangements, first prize for special arrangements, and third for tall arrangements.

Other Torrance prize winners were Mrs. John Thuss who won second prize in miscellaneous arrangements; Mrs. Thomas McCutcheon who took first, second, and third in miniatures under 2 inches, and third in miniatures under 5 inches; and Mrs. J. Parke Montague who won first and second prizes in miniatures under 5 inches, and first in arrangements with wood.

CAMPER'S RALLY SET BY TORRANCE YWCA

Torrance youngsters who want to go to YMCA camp this summer are invited with their parents to attend the annual Camper's Rally, June 6, 7:30 p.m. at the Y branch.

Stan Roberts, Y Executive Secretary, said this week that the program will be explained and illustrated at the get-together. He called it an event for the whole family and entertainment will include a movie on YMCA camping and colored slides of past Torrance trips.

"Sign up Early" "Indications are that there will be more boys who want to go to camp this year than we'll be able to handle, and we advise parents to sign their boys up early," Roberts warned. One boy who won't have to
